

More Firsts: This arrangement features thematic material from the third movement of "Spring," one of four violin concertos in Vivaldi's famous group of concertos called, "The Four Seasons." Included in his publications were sonnets (poems) and the poem linked with the third movement is as follows:

*To the rustic bagpipe's merry sound,
Nymphs and shepherds dance under the lovely sky,
When spring appears in all its brilliance.*

11. Spring

Antonio Vivaldi

Violins

Violas

Cellos

Double Basses

Piano

The musical score is arranged in five systems. The first system contains the Violins (A and B staves), the second system contains the Violas (A and B staves), the third system contains the Cellos (A and C staves), the fourth system contains the Double Basses (A and C staves), and the fifth system contains the Piano (treble and bass staves). The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 4/4. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings.