FIRST PERFORMANCE ENSEMBLES

Flexibly Scored Ensembles for Beginning String Players

Welcome to First Performance Ensembles, a supplement to the String Basics curriculum. Here you will find 15 flexibly scored ensembles where the music includes original works along with classical and folk song themes. A few favorite holiday tunes are included, too!

This Piano Reduction book contains a piano part for each selection and was specially designed for rehearsals. It also serves well in performances when string players might need a little extra support. The level of these piano parts are considered to be late elementary/early intermediate.

If you would like to listen to full-length recordings of the music in this collection, visit www.kjos.com, click on the Kjos Multimedia Library icon, then go to String Orchestra Collections.
