*Symphony Performance Folio*14 Progressive and Flexible Arrangements for Strings, Woodwinds, Brass, and Percussion

Welcome to Symphony Performance Folio, a progressive collection of arranged works for ensembles of all sizes and instrumentation. No matter if you are playing in a full symphonic orchestra, string orchestra, or a group with a specially selected instrumentation, the wide variety of literature in this collection captures the true essence of each original work. Enjoy!

Each piece in this collection offers a different combination timpani, mallet, and/or non-pitched percussion instruments. For some arrangements, up to four players will be required in order for all instruments to be covered. While performing each work with all percussion is optimum, it is not required.
