

Contents

Forewords	8
Acknowledgements	10
Preface	12
1. Spinning Plates	16
The Problem: Balancing the Big Picture and the Details	16
The Solution: Spinning Plates—An Eclectic Approach to Rehearsal	17
The Comprehensive Teaching Method	18
Tools and Artisanhip	19
2. Tone	21
A Small Bit of Science	21
Factors Contributing to Tone Production	23
Adapting Philosophy to Practice	25
Full Band Strategies for Better Tone	25
Individual Instrument Strategies for Better Tone	26
The Function of Warm-ups in Tone Development	35
Teaching Tone and the Manifestation of an Educational Philosophy	40
3. Pitch	42
Pitch Matching Strategies and Scenarios	43
Boiling Down the Scenarios	56
More Thoughts on Pitch Matching	57
4. Balance & Blend	62
Creating Balance	64
Creating Blend	68

5. Rhythm	70
What is Rhythm?	70
The Big Disconnect: “Magical” vs. “Logical” Thinking —and What We Can Do!	70
Tapping the Foot	72
Building a Rhythm Alphabet	75
Rhythm Tricks of the Trade	82
Repairing Rhythms in Ensemble Playing	85
Tying it all Together	88
6. Technique	90
Articulation	90
Fluency	96
Projection of Technical Passages	99
Tick-“Talk”: Judicious Use of a Metronome	99
The Missing Piece	100
7. Written Expression, Style, Phrasing, & Musicianship	101
Written Expression Markings	102
Style	116
Phrasing	127
Musicianship	130
8. Harnessing the Power of Band Whispering	135
The Limited Value of “Best Practices”	135
Whisperer and Whisperee	136
Care and Feeding of the Whispering Muscle	137
Still Wondering?	139
What Can I Do Tomorrow? Here Are Some Ideas!	148
Putting It All Together—The Never-ending Beginning	149