

From the joys of motherhood (one daughter and three sons) now come the added delights of grandmotherhood! To our daughter's endearing children, Nina Elizabeth and Joël Kellogg Deppen, I lovingly dedicate this collection.

Eugénie R. Rocherolle

Nina's Waltz . . . 4

A March for Joël . . . 11

Eugénie Ricau Rocherolle loves to write for the piano, although she has also enjoyed writing many published pieces for chorus and band. Her listening experiences as she was growing up in New Orleans — from recordings of the great masters that her family played, to the prevalent New Orleans jazz — are evident in her colorful compositions. For a list of Mrs. Rocherolle's piano publications, see the back cover for Solos, Christmas, and Ensembles.

Her home is in Wilton, Connecticut, where she teaches piano and enjoys her role as grandmother. Having raised four children, it is probably safe to say that Nina and Joël are just the beginning!
