

Classroom Management in the Music Room: “Pin-Drop Quiet” Classes and Rehearsals

Table of Contents

Introduction	1–5
---------------------------	------------

Part One

Management Techniques: Principles and Procedures

Pages 6–140

The Twin Foundations	7
Without Ever Raising His Voice.....	9
It’s the Program, Not the Personality.....	10
Getting Started	11
The Quietest Day of the Year	12
A Demonstration Class	14
Day One	16
The Rules	24
Day Two.....	41
First Rehearsals Are “Staged”	47
The Consequences	51
Firm, Fair, and Consistent.....	69
The Final Step.....	77
More Promises	79
Foolish, Scary Promises?	83
This Just Seems Too Simple	96
Discipline and Control	98
Please and Thank You	101

Reward Systems.....	107
Teaching Performance Behavior.....	121
Teaching Audience Behavior.....	124
Teaching Concert Behavior to the Entire Student Body.....	129
The Good News/The Bad News/The Best News.....	139

Part Two

MUSICAL SKILLS and the Students' Classroom Experiences Pages 141–235

The Ambiance of the Music Room.....	142
Time is of the Essence.....	152
PLANNING: Programs, Concerts, Classes and Rehearsals.....	161
A Closer Look at the Successful Class/Rehearsal.....	168
Two Foundational Principles.....	169
A Two-Part Rehearsal Format.....	173
Pacing and Teacher Talk in the Music Room.....	183
Wordless Rehearsal Stops.....	188
Grading: Its Relationship to Behavior and Performance.....	192
The Eyes Have It.....	206
The Performance Group as a Community.....	217
Competition as Motivation: Looking at Both Sides of the Coin.....	220
If at First You Don't Succeed, You Are NOT a Failure.....	234
A Final Thought.....	236
Appendix.....	237