

The patriotic songs and marches in this collection reflect the spirit, history and tradition of our great country. Men like George M. Cohan, John Philip Sousa and many others wrote stirring music, rich in character, which helped shape our country's national spirit. The most familiar music by these great composers is arranged for easy piano in this collection. In addition, a duet medley, America '76, is included to be enjoyed by partners informally or in recital, or to be used for piano ensemble festivals.
