About the Composer

Jeanine Nellis Yeager has received national recognition for her fresh and appealing piano compositions. Her style has attracted a large number of followers who admire her expressive and improvisational style. A native of Dayton, Ohio, Jeanine attended the Cincinnati College Conservatory of Music. As an accompanist for the Conservatory dance department, she became skilled at keyboard improvisation. This love for improvisation is reflected in her compositions.

Jeanine especially enjoys creating compositions that fit the personality and needs of individual students. Her expertise in composition enables her to create motivational and exciting pieces that encourage students to excel. Her professional affiliations include memberships in Sigma Alpha Iota and The Dayton Music Club.

Jeanine completed her Bachelor of Music degree in piano at Capitol University and received her Master of Music degree in theory and composition from Ohio State University.
