

Table of Contents

Preface .....	x
Acknowledgments .....	xii
1. So You Teach Piano! .....	15
• Our Unique Profession .....	15
• The Independent Music Teacher .....	16
• Why Do You Teach Piano? – Establishing a Philosophy .....	16
• The Studio Policy .....	19
• Your Teaching Environment at a Glance .....	21
• Starting an Independent Studio – The Five Most Important Things You Need to Know ....	23
2. Studio Nuts and Bolts .....	27
• Getting the Word Out – Marketing Your Studio .....	27
• Tuition .....	29
• Yearly Tuition Formula .....	30
• Scheduling .....	31
• Studio Calendar of Events .....	31
• Missed Lessons .....	32
• Communication .....	32
• Websites .....	33
• The More the Merrier .....	33
• Business Basics .....	36
• Professional Connections .....	36
• Variations on a Theme .....	37
3. 21st-Century and Beyond – Facing Technology Head-On .....	43
• Getting Equipped – Step-by-Step .....	43
• Lab Logistics .....	45
• Curriculum Development .....	45
• Software Options – Where to Begin? .....	46
4. First Impressions .....	53
• A Positive Student Interview/Audition .....	53
• Before the Interview .....	54